

SPRING – SUMMER 2023

PROFESSIONAL ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMS

for Study Abroad Professionals and Faculty

JUNE 4–11, 2023

Critical Approaches to Activism, Advocacy & Policy in Southeast Europe

In-person | Belgrade, Serbia

As the largest urban space in Southeast Europe, Belgrade is home to numerous social justice movements, local NGOs, dynamic civic activism, and advocacy work. In this seminar, participants will examine civic action on a variety of issues—from corruption scandals to demanding more democratic participation and socially just policies—on local, regional, and transnational trajectories.

JUNE 11–17, 2023

Grounding Faculty-led Programs in Experiential Education Pedagogy & Decolonial Perspectives

In-person | Accra, Ghana

Through this on-site immersive skills-based seminar, participants will explore strategies for grounding global program design and delivery in the principles of experiential learning pedagogy and decolonial perspectives. Using Ghana as a case study, gain a new perspective on Africa's cosmopolitanism, one that complicates and de es Eurocentric representations.

FEBRUARY–APRIL, 2023

Designing & Leading Global Experiential Programs: Onsite & Online

Online | Professional Development Certificate

Throughout this 8-week online certificate program, participants will engage with SIT staff, fellow study abroad professionals and faculty, exploring best practices and ethical considerations in developing engaging, experiential global programming, on-site and online.